

I live in a real rural area and am unable to listen to most of the radio programs I would like to, UNTIL XM, now I can listen to talk radio and my favorite music channels. I feel we should let the competition grow, hell, what do the "free" broadcasters have to fear? Choice is American!